

What Can I Do in the Messy Play Area?

I can use my senses as I explore different materials and textures.

I can use tools and equipment to enhance my play.

I can use small motor skills to control and manipulate materials.

I can describe what I am doing in some detail.

I can talk about the differences between materials.

I can share resources and materials.

I can talk about how materials change.

